Home is where the is!

Coming Home...

I approach my doorway and push down on the door handle. I step into the familiar space and immediately smell that unique scent of something sweet, like brownies, mixed with a woody aroma. I flip on the lights and the room floods with warmth, illuminating all of the objects that make this space so comfortable. Everything seems to have a place and is organized, just the way I like it. I make some coffee because some of my visitors will be here shortly. I take those few minutes of alone time to thank God for this space. I'm so thankful to look at these walls and know that they're mine. No, that's not right. These walls are God's. But I'm home. I'm finally home.

Home — that blessed word, which opens to the human heart the most perfect glimpse of Heaven, and helps to carry it thither, as on an angel's wings.

-Lydia Child

Whose Home is it, Anyway?

Of course, this isn't just any home. This is the new Sharing Hope Ministry office. Our visitors aren't just any visitors. They're you, our volunteers; our friends. The cushy chairs encircle the tables where you write letters of encouragement to thousands of women. The computers are aligned with comfortable space surrounding each workstation. Daily volunteer work is divided among teal cloth bins that match the beautiful décor that makes this space feel so homey. Patsy's Place participants come through the workroom on their way to appointments and job interviews, stopping to say hello to staff and volunteers. This office is filled with love and hope for the future.

Friends,

We are incredibly thankful for the support you offered in Sharing Hope Ministry's mission of renovating our office space. Your donations, prayers and support allowed us to elevate that vision to reality, with God's guidance and provision along the way. We can now store more Bibles and studies, host more meetings and events and grow the ministry as God leads. We're home. We're finally home.

"All I have in my life is Jesus. I am hoping maybe I can reach out to you and find a home and family at Patsy's Place."

-Patsy's Place applicant

Chad Williams

Who is Chad Williams?

Author of his new book SEAL of God, Chad shares his journey through the grueling Naval Ops training and onto the streets of Iraq, where he witnessed the horrors of war up close. Chad shares his own radical conversion story and talks about how he draws on his own experiences as a SEAL to help others better understand the depths of Christ's sacrifice and love.

COMMUNITY SERVICE DAY

Join us on Saturday, April 18th for a fun, community-oriented volunteer day at Sharing Hope Ministry.

Your group or church can sign up for a particular project and/or shift time to maximize your impact on the ministry. Some projects for this day will include:

- Spreading mulch for our community garden (Coming this Spring!)
- Assembling planters
- Cleaning the Patsy's Place courtyard
- Planting flowers and plants in the courtyard
- Spring cleaning Patsy's Place
- Sending Life Recovery Bibles with a note of encouragement to women
- Basement organization
- More!

Call 806.358.7803 or email amy@sharinghopeministry.org if you're interested in participating.

Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon

Look out for your save-the-date for this special luncheon. We invite our volunteers to spend time together with the staff to celebrate all of the hard work that our volunteers put in to allow Sharing Hope Ministry to continually do God's work. It's going to be a great time – don't miss it!
